ANOTHER DARK DAY

Crowds Turned Out Quite Well Nevertheless.

Everybody Now Hopes for Pretty Weather the Rest of the Week.

RUSH EXPECTED THIS EVENING

The promised fair weather for today failed to materialize. While there have been hundreds of people in the business part of the city, and many patronize the various attractions, it does not look much like the carnival we have been used to in Paducah.

Many strangers are in the city, about 500 coming in from Cairo and way landings yesterday afternoon on the Fowler.

All the trains bring in many visitors, but the crowds are nothing to what they would be if the weather were only more favorable.

Mrs. Lettie Farmer presented the number that drew the barrel of flour and secured it last night.

The number that gets the gold-headed umbrella is 3867, with 3573 next and 3628 next if neither of the two former are presented.

Tonight's capital prize is a suit of clothes, which was to have been given away yesterday but for the fact that the rain reduced the patronage.

This morning both accommodation trains from Fulton and Hopkinsville were well filled with carnival visitors. The Fulton train carried over 100 passengers and the Hopkinsville train carried nearly that many. A number of farmers came in this morning also and the wagon yards are doing a good business.

The sun has made several unsuccessful attempts to come out today, and although the crowds have thronged the streets and the shows have been well patronized considering the weather, there is an unpleasant depression everywhere.

Tonight there is a promise of a larger crowd than since the carnival began, as those who have been waiting for pretty weather will wait no longer, but go out and help make the carnival a howling success.

WELL SOAKED.

WAS A PROMINENT MEMPHIS WHISKEY MAN AT UNION CITY.

Union City, Tenn., May 14—After being out about thirty minutes a jury brought in a verdict sentencing Max Heilbronner of Memphis, to thirty days in jail and to pay a fine of $50 on the charge of aiding and abetting Roy Webster in running a saloon here in violation of the Adams law. Heilbronner could not be tried except in a case also implicating Webster, and the jury also gave the latter $50 and thirty days. Heilbronner's attorneys at once made a motion for a new hearing which it is generally conceded will be denied, hence these two cases, like those of yesterday against West and Heilbronner, will go to the supreme court.

PROF. M'BROOM.

IS BEING URGED TO RUN FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

Prof. George O. McBroom, formerly superintendent of the Paducah public schools, is being urged by a large number of friends here and elsewhere to make the race for the Republican nomination for superintendent of public instruction of Kentucky, and is considering the matter. He is a good man, well qualified for the place, and it is probable will consent to allow his name to be used in connection with the nomination.

THE PATIENT VANISHED.

G. W. Rorer of 1119 North Fourteenth street was coming in town yesterday afternoon and claimed to have found a sick man out on the Hinkleville road about two miles. Sheriff Potter went in search of the man, but could not find him.

MAYOR TO TOSS BALL

A Big Time Expected When Ball Season Begins.

A Parade Will Start From the City Hall—Ladies All To Be Admitted Free.

THE HENDERSON CLUB LEAVES

Preparations are being made for a big demonstration upon the formal opening of the baseball season, which takes place at Wallace park here next Thursday, a week from today, by a game with Owensboro. The Paducah boys will by that time be in better working order, for they know they will go up against a hot proposition when Owensboro comes to town.

Day before yesterday the Owensboro boys beat the Hopkinsville team, which took two straights from Paducah, this week.

On the afternoon of the opening in Paducah there will be a big parade, starting from the city hall at 2 o'clock and headed by a brass band and city officials. They will march down Court to First, down to Broadway, thence to Ninth, where there will be a special car waiting to take them to the park.

The ladies will all be admitted free on that afternoon, and the first ball will be tossed over the plate by Mayor Yeiser.

The games played thus far by the clubs have been only exhibition, or practice games, and Paducah is expected to play fast ball when the regular season opens. The boys are going to be well disciplined, and given to understand that they are expected to play good ball or quit, and those who want to engage in the pastime of lashing will be given plenty of time in which to indulge without allowing ball playing to divert their minds. In fact they will soon have nothing else to do, for local managers say their men must not "fight booze."

The games with Jackson, Tenn., Saturday and Sunday promise to arouse a great deal of interest, because it is said that Jackson has the best team in the league, with Cairo next.

The baseball game scheduled for today between the Henderson and Paducah K. I. T. league teams, was called off this morning on account of the bad condition of the grounds and the Henderson team left on the Hopkins for home.

Paducah will leave for Jackson Sunday night to play the Jackson team at home on Monday and Tuesday. The local boys are now in condition to win, they think, and will not be satisfied with anything but all four games.

The Henderson boys feel disappointed over the postponement of the games. They wanted to meet the local boys here for two more games and give them a chance to redeem themselves.

SAYS HE WAS ROBBED

Livingston County Man Shows up With Painful Wound.

Several Cases of Beer Stolen from the Cold Storage on First Street.

COMPARATIVELY FEW THEFTS

Dick Turpin, a young man from near Carrsville, Ky., appeared at his hotel, the New Richmond, last night about 12 o'clock with his forehead split open claiming he had been knocked down and robbed. His head was seriously cut and bruised and the wound seemed to have been caused by some blunt instrument, probably a club. He left the hotel with $12 and returned with empty pockets.

He did not know exactly where the supposed robbery took place.

The police are doing excellent work this year and comparatively few thefts of any size have been committed since the carnival began. There are several extra police on the force and they are keeping a strict lookout for all suspicious characters and seem to have the thieves bluffed. Several tramps have come in on freight trains but have been immediately made to leave the city by the officers.

There are a great many hobos in the city and the I. C. depot is filled with them every night. Night Agent John Manion has a great deal of trouble with them and frequently has to run them out. Some claim they are waiting for a train but will buy no tickets and are still in the waiting room after the train leaves. All are boosted out when the police put in their appearance, however.

Last night miscreants broke into the cold storage of the Evansville Brewing company at the ice factory and stole three or four cases of beer. The theft was reported to the police but no trace of the thieves has been discovered by Agent R. C. Callisi.

A set of harness was stolen from the Huff wagon yard on South Third street last night, but no clue to the identity of the thief has been secured. The matter has been placed in the hands of the police, who are today investigating.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS MEET.

St. Louis, May 14—The supreme council of the Catholic Knights of America has decided that the national headquarters of the order shall remain in St. Louis. The minimum amount for which a certificate of insurance may be issued by the order was reduced from $500 to $250, thus making four amounts for which members can become insured, $2,000, $1,000, $500 and $250.

Mr. A. H. Cunningham, of Cincinnati, is in the city today on business.

I. C. MEN MAY HELP

Reported They Will Refuse to Handle M. & O., Freight.

Secret Meeting Held at Jackson—Officers to Stop Rowdiness Here.

MINOR RAILROAD MENTION

Railroad men coming from Jackson, Tenn., say that a secret meeting was held there by the Illinois Central men who are members of one or the other of the railroad men's orders, and that it is believed that they resolved to refuse to haul any of the Mobile and Ohio freight. The report cannot be given as authentic, but it seems to be the consensus of opinion that that was the conclusion arrived at. That a secret meeting was held is not denied, but when the results are to be made known or what they are are matters for conjecture only. It seems to be generally agreed that the action of the Illinois Central employees, as forecasted above, is what will really happen in the event of the Mobile and Ohio holding out against the men, but they are undecided as to when to start to "put the screws to them."

Special Agent Dineen, of the Illinois Central, one of the most energetic and popular special agents the company ever had on this division, will, beginning next Sunday have an office on every passenger train between Paducah and Mayfield. The toughs of Mayfield have for several years past frequently, especially on Sunday, which seems to be an off day with them, created all kinds of disturbances on the trains between Paducah and Mayfield, and their conduct has become so objectionable and uncontrollable that the special agent will have officers aboard until the gang is broken up.

Mr. Fred Runge, the machinist, has been promoted to the position of foreman of the night crew at the Illinois Central shops, a position he deserves and a promotion his friends will be pleased to learn of. Mr. Runge takes charge of his new position this evening.

Ben F. Evans of the local I. C. store room has been promoted to assistant timekeeper to succeed George H. Durst, resigned. No one has yet been appointed in Mr. Evans' place.

Master Mechanic T. F. Barton went to Madisonville this morning on business.

PRAISE THE G. A. R.

FOR AID IN SECURING MORE LIBERAL PENSION LAWS.

Chattanooga, May 14—At the regular meeting of N. B. Forrest camp, Confederate Veterans, a resolution was passed praising the Grand Army posts of Chattanooga. This action was prompted by the recent support given the Confederate Veterans of Tennessee in their efforts to secure more liberal pension laws from the legislature. While several of the bills to increase the pensions to Confederate veterans were pending at the recent session of the legislature the local Grand Army Republic posts passed resolutions urging the legislature, in the interest of the Confederate veterans, to pass these measures. In consequence of this and other influences the legislature enacted some pension legislation which is considered of great benefit to the Confederate veterans of Tennessee.

ARBITRATION PROPOSED

COMMERCIAL CLUB ENTERS THE FIELD WITH A PLEA FOR PEACE.

Jackson, Tenn., May 14—The Mobile and Ohio moved several freight trains out of here. Everything is still very quiet, but the men are ill at ease and trouble is expected at any time. The Commercial club has appointed a committee to wait on the officials of the road and leaders of the strike and arrange for a meeting whereby terms of a settlement of the trouble may be discussed.

TO END AGITATION

Railroads Propose Plan to Arbitrate Differences.

They Claim the Demands of Labor Over the Country Are General and Continuous.

ARBITRATION IS PROPOSED

Chicago, May 14—A movement has been begun by the managements of Chicago railroads to compel labor organizations to agree to submit differences to arbitration whenever negotiations between roads and employees fail to end in agreements. The lead in the movement is apparently being taken by the Rock Island, the Burlington and one or two other strong Western lines. Thus far, however, the proposition regarding ultimate arbitration has been either refused or dodged by labor organizations.

It was pointed out today that the demands of labor had become so general and continuous that it was no longer possible for the operating officials to spend weeks in doubtful conference. The arbitration clause is therefore being proposed with a view of insuring results and increasing the probability of both sides beginning negotiations with a case which they are not afraid to submit to the public. If the railroads cannot induce the labor organizations to agree to the ultimate arbitration plan it is likely that before long a general arbitration board will be selected to represent all railroads territorially allied.

One general manager stated that the time he and assistant operating officials had been compelled to devote to conferences with labor committees during the past six months had in reality been an almost constant menace to the safety of the traveling public.

"It is not a stretch of truth," said the general manager of one road, "to say that we no longer have the time to see that our roads are operated to the standard of efficiency that should prevail."

GROVER'S PLANS.

FORMER PRESIDENT TO LAY LOW UNTIL DAY BEFORE CONVENTION.

Put-in-Bay, O., May 14—The Kentuckians, who are stopping at Middle Bass Island, and among whom there are some prominent politicians, spring this story as to Grover Cleveland's intentions regarding the presidential nomination:

Cleveland will make no statement about his position until shortly before the convention. Meanwhile, in anticipation of his candidacy for the nomination, a sentiment for him will be nursed by the Democrats who are opposed to Bryan. Cleveland will then declare himself positively out of the race, and will endorse Judson Harmon of Cincinnati for the nomination.

Said Harmon last night: "I can't say anything about the story at this time. Before a presidential year the friends of every man of prominence trot him out." Harmon is Cleveland's chum at the island. They occupy the same boat while fishing every day.

GAGGED AND LEFT FOR DEAD

MASKED MEN GOT ABOUT ALL HE HAD AND THEN SKIPPED OUT.

Monroe, Mich., May 14—Three masked men battered in the door of Laurence Gregory's home, five miles northeast from here, last midnight, bound Gregory and then robbed him of $56 in cash, a certificate of deposit for $20 and a check for $340. Gregory, who is a bachelor, aged 69 years, lived alone in the house.

During the struggle with the thieves he was struck on the head with a blunt instrument and evidently left for dead. Gregory's hands were badly burned by the ropes the robbers tied around them and his right side is also badly injured. There is no clue to the thieves.

YOUNG MAN ALLEGED TO BE WANTED IN TENNESSEE CAUGHT.

A young man named B. F. Plummer was arrested here yesterday afternoon by Officer William Johnson on complaint of Marshal Johnson, of Huntington, Tenn., who came here after him. It is alleged the young man is wanted for embezzlement, and he agreed to return without a requisition.

Plummer, according to the officer, was short in his accounts with the Cumberland Telephone company when he left Huntington. He admits he owed money, but says he left Huntington because of family troubles, and intended to settle everything up when he got the money. He has been working for Foreman Brothers here and will be taken back today.

LOVERS KILLED BY RIVALS.

Kokomo, Ind., May 14—It developed in the inquest over Louis Yeager that he had not only been murdered, but that Francis Sutton, who was found dead at the same spot two weeks ago, was also murdered. The verdict of suicide will be reversed. Both Sutton and Yeager lived at Oakford and had been visiting their betrothed, Stella Peters and Myrtle Fenley of Hemlock. Both were slain en route home. Warrants are out for three Hemlock young men. The couples had arranged for a double wedding in June. The neighborhood has raised a purse of $1000 to hire detectives.

LIVED AFTER DEATH

Remarkable Experiments Reported by Eastern Physician.

Resuscitation Under Certain Conditions Can Easily Be Accomplished.

MEDICAL WORLD ASTONISHED

New York, May 14—Following a series of remarkable experiments made by him Dr. Robert Coleman Kemp of No. 107 East Fifty-seventh street has declared to the medical profession that resuscitation of persons after death, under certain conditions, can be accomplished. In fact he has proved it beyond any doubt by operations performed upon dogs whose hearts had ceased to beat. The result of these experiments was explained by Dr. Kemp at a meeting held in the New York Academy of Medicine last night. It is confidently believed by Dr. Kemp that his efforts will eventually be rewarded by having a patient live and recover permanently after death has actually set in.

"The method is to make a small incision between two ribs," Dr. Kemp said, "and to thrust in two fingers until they actually touch the heart itself. The heart is then pressed against the ribs, giving it the motion of the natural beat. At the same time a saline solution is infused into the patient and respiration is induced by means of a pump invented by Mr. Hoyt, the general electrician at the College of Physicians and Surgeons. The intubation tube, practically the same as the O'Dwyer tube used for croup, is attached to the pump and thrust down the patient's throat as far as the windpipe.

"The massage of the heart starts the human mechanism, and the other methods restore the other functions, so that the patient, who was dead, actually lives again. Of course the vital spark must still be present, but in the experiments we have made upon dogs it was shown that even the slightest pulsation of the heart had ceased."

CONFER AGAIN

CHAIRMAN EDWARDS WILL PROBABLY PERMIT NO COUNT.

A conference will be held by Chairman Morrison, of the McCracken county committee, and Chairman Edwards, of the Marshall county committee, Wednesday next relative to the count demanded in the recent primary vote in Marshall county. Attorney John G. Lovett's friends claim that the primary law does not admit of a count by the committee except in case of contest, and that the hullabaloo raised by a few over the Marshall county chairman's refusal to allow a count made in Marshall, by the Chairman of the McCracken county committee and one of the candidates, is only a political scheme to have the law violated and possibly the county thrown out, thus defeating Mr. Lovett, who won by his vote in Marshall. It is probable, in view of this position, that Mr. Lovett and his friends will insist on a refusal to allow another count. The cost of holding the primary was about $480 in this county, only a small part of which has been paid. The state committee is supposed to pay half of it, the railroad commissioners committee a part and the county the remainder.

CONDITION HOPELESS.

DR. HESSIG LEAVES TO BRING HIS BROTHER TO PADUCAH.

Dr. A. Hessig left today for Philadelphia to bring his brother, Mr. Fred Hessig, to Paducah. A letter was today received from Philadelphia stating that Mr. Hessig had a stroke of paralysis which rendered his condition hopeless, and that there was practically no advantage to be gained in keeping him there longer under treatment. Dr. Hessig will bring his brother to Paducah.

PADUCAH HONORED

Captures High Office and Next Meeting of Red Men.

The Reports Show Lodge to Have Made a Wonderful Increase in Kentucky.

THE NEW OFFICERS

Mr. J. J. Frenndlich returned last evening from Maysville, where he attended the great council of Red Men. Mr. L. L. Bebout returns today. The meeting was one of the largest ever held, and Paducah succeeded not only in getting one of the most important officers, but in capturing the next meeting as well.

The meetings were held in Odd Fellows' hall. Great Sachem W. O. Pelham of Maysville presided. Complimentary to Sachem Pelham, the badges worn by the Indians bore his picture. John I. Winter of Maysville delivered the welcome address. Responses were made by Lawrence Leopold of Louisville and Thomas Donnelly of Philadelphia, the highest officer of Red Men in the United States. In Kentucky the membership increased over 1500 last year. Maysville lodge has 271 members, and last July initiated 114 palefaces in one night on the opera house stage before an audience of nearly 1,000 Red Men.

The following great officers were elected for the ensuing year: Sachem, Horace J. McFarlan, Lagrange; prophet, W. O. Pelham, Maysville; senior sagamore, H. H. Denhardt, Bowling Green; junior sagamore, L. L. Bebout, Paducah; chief of records, Henry W. Ray, Maysville, defeating H. W. Schwieters, Louisville, in an exciting contest; keeper of wampum, S. C. Moore, Louisville; representatives, W. C. Pelham, Maysville, and John H. Buschmeyer and Charles A. Hess, Louisville. The Haymakers, of Louisville, and Cowboys, of Louisville, initiated forty candidates.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Paducah people endorse our claim. Mrs. George Romain, of 726 Tennessee street, says: "For three years my back was lame and ached severely, particularly under the shoulder blades despite the use of medicine. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, getting them at DuBois & Co's drug store. They are easy to take, they cure you without causing any annoyance and if I can judge from my present condition when they cure you stay cured. THOUSANDS ARE OUT

Strike Situation is Becoming Serious Now.

Many Cities Throughout the United States Are Involved in the Strikes.

A FEW MEN RETURN TO WORK

The labor situation in cities throughout the country is becoming serious, as the aggregate of men on strike is very large. The demands are generally for higher wages and shorter hours. The cities involved and the number of men out are as follows:

Fort Wayne, Ind., 135 men; Quincy, Ill., 200; Boston, Mass., 200; Cleveland, O., 1000; Atlanta, Ga., 100; Peoria, Ill., 100 girls; Detroit, Mich., 200 men; Baltimore, Md., 500; Jackson, Mich., 2000; Grand Rapids, Mich., 1000; Evansville, Ind., 700; Wilkesbarre, Pa., 200; Akron, O., 500; Pittsburgh, Pa., 20,000; Denver, Col., 650; Hammond, Ind., 2000; Kansas City, Mo., 400; St. Paul, Minn., 100; New Haven, Conn., 600.

After declaring that neither they nor their men would go back to work on the New York city subway until they could get $2 wages and an eight hour day, the heads of the different branches of the rockmen's and excavators' union now on strike agreed to advise their Italian followers to go back to work before the contractors filled their places with non-union men. A speedy settlement of the Chicago laundry workers' strike now rests with the strikers. The employing laundry men sent a request to the Chicago board of arbitration asking that body to use its good offices toward bringing the strike to an end. In a letter to Chairman Selfridge of the board, the employers agree to abide by whatever decision is rendered. President Wilson of the laundry workers' union, has been asked whether the union will agree to leave its case in the hands of this board for settlement.

MINISTER SUSTAINED.

STATE DEPARTMENT UPHOLDS MINISTER CONGER.

Washington, May 14—The state department fully sustains the action of Minister Conger and his associate commissioners in effecting an agreement with China for the payment of the indemnity arising from the Boxer troubles on the basis of the rate of exchange in 1901. The contention of the other powers parties to the treaty of Peking, if sustained, would require China to pay almost double her debt, and Secretary Hay took the position that it was unfair and inequitable to require that more unfortunate country to make good the heavy losses caused by the depression of silver. As the United States has steadfastly insisted on being treated on an equality with other powers, however, it follows that these powers must either accept their indemnity on the basis arranged by Mr. Conger or insist upon the payment of the present rate of exchange, in which latter event the United States would also be entitled to her proportion of the increase.

Treasury Department, Office of the Supervising Architect, Washington, D. C., May 6, 1903.

FOR THOSE WHO

LIVE ON FARMS.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co's.

A NEW TREATMENT FOR POLICE CHIEFS

Efforts to be Made to Cure Consumption.

Clinics to Be Held at the New Free Hospital at Chicago.

Berlin, May 14—St. Ann's sanitarium, the new consumptive's hospital, which is about to be opened in Chicago, will be the scene of great tuberculosis clinics during the coming summer, at which Robert Schneider, of Berlin, the discoverer of the consumptive cure known as "sanosin," will introduce his treatment to the American medical and scientific world. George C. Mages, of Chicago, secretary of the citizens' committee which raised the fund for the building of the sanitarium, has arranged that Schneider shall spend June, July, August and September in Chicago, and treat free all the patients that the hospital can accommodate.

Schneider's discovery will be made public for the first time before the Berlin medical society today by Prof. Theodor Sommerfeld. Berlin's foremost authority on consumption, who will make an exhaustive report, proving that the remedy has permanently cured 60 per cent of all consumptives treated. The experiments covered a period of six months, and included many cases in the second and third stages. The cure is not a serum, like Koch's "tuberculin." It is a vapor administered by inhalation, and generated over a simple alcohol lamp from a powdered mixture of Australian eucalyptus and sulphur.

George C. Mages is enthusiastic over having secured the first American demonstration of the cure for the Chicago sanitarium. He says that the German medical authorities maintain that it ranks as the most important contribution to the science of tuberculosis treatment since Koch discovered the bacillus of that disease. Frank H. Mason, United States consul general here, will forward a full report of the cure to Washington.

NOVEL GOWN

AMERICAN GIRL SETS LONDON WILD.

London, May 14—All London is talking of the sensational dress worn by the Princess Hatzfeldt, adopted daughter of the late C. P. Huntington of California, at Mrs. Adair's ball. The princess impersonated Queen Esther. Her gown was a wonderful Oriental creation, sparkling with precious stones. Her head dress was studded with enough stones to set off a crown, but most marvelous of all were her sandals. They were made so that the toes were free, an enormous ring blazing on each of them after the ancient fashion of the East. The princess was the center of attraction from the very start of the ball, and her costume was declared the most sensational seen in years at a similar affair.

Kentucky is Well Represented at New Orleans.

About 200 Delegates Are There Attending the Meeting.

New Orleans, La., May 14—Kentucky is about the best represented state in the union at the big gathering of national thief catchers, now assembled here for the convention of the National Association of Police Chiefs. The convention opened with welcomes from the mayor and other cordial speeches. The president, Major Sylvester, then read his annual report.

Among the Kentuckians quartered at the St. Charles hotel are the following: Former Chief J. H. Hanger, his wife and two daughters, of Louisville; James F. Crow, chief of police, Paducah; Chief Sebastian Gunther, of Louisville; Chief Elijah Henry, accompanied by his wife, Henderson; Captain of Police J. W. Hendricks, of Louisville; City Marshal W. H. McCollum, Kuttawa; Chief J. J. Reagan, Livingston; Chief of Detectives William F. Sullivan, Louisville; Chief B. E. Smith, Newport; Chief John Wilson, Princeton.

About two hundred are here, all told. The social features form the most brilliant part of the program. The association's annual special agents which is meeting here coincident with the International Association of Police Chiefs, this morning elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: W. G. Baldwin, of Roanoke, Va., re-elected president; L. P. Grady, Indianapolis, first vice president; C. E. Dawson, of Aurora, Ill., re-elected secretary and treasurer.

ON A BOOM

NO EVIDENCES OF RACE SUICIDE IN NEW YORK CITY.

New York, May 14—Statistics compiled by the board of health show that the population of the city of New York is increasing with a remarkably rapid rate.

The births reported in Manhattan borough alone during the first four months of the present year were 2,000 in excess of those reported in the same period last year.

It is pointed out that the cosmopolitan population and the large proportion of foreigners in the city may account for the high birth rate.

Taking all things into consideration the board of health has estimated that the population of the city has grown from 3,437,202 at the time of the last federal census in 1900 to 3,732,930 at present.

LIBEL BILL A LAW.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 14—Governor Pennypacker has approved the Grady-Salus libel bill and at the same time issued a long statement giving the reasons for his action. The bill, which was in the governor's hands for more than a month, goes into effect immediately and repeals all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the new act.

READY FOR REUNION

New Orleans Prepared to Entertain Many Thousand.

The Various States Are to Be Represented by Heralds in Decorated Coach.

REUNION BEGINS THE 18TH

New Orleans, May 14—Everything is now practically in shape for the reunion. Auditorium quarters for the veterans and arrangements for feeding them are all in shape. The great betting ring at the fair grounds will be their dining room, and the tents in the infield will be provided with plank floors and excelsior mattresses. The committee has bought 5,000 blankets and an equal number of cots, which will be put into the Gasquet building and the old Hotel Royal, which will accommodate 5,000 to 6,000 men with sleeping quarters.

The entertainment of the veterans who are to be fed will begin with breakfast Tuesday morning, the 18th. Ample provisions have been ordered to supply every want.

Gen. Gordon, commander of the Tennessee division, has written that there will be 345 men in uniformed companies from various cities in that state. They will bring guns and blankets. It is hoped that as many of the organized companies as can will bring blankets.

The attendance will be enormous. There will be about 5,000 from Tennessee, 5,000 from Arkansas, 25,000 to 40,000 from Mississippi, 12,000 to 20,000 from Texas, etc. Of course Louisiana will have a vast number.

Gov. Frazier of Tennessee and Gov. Terrell of Georgia will be here with members of their staffs. Judge J. H. Reagan, sole survivor of President Davis' cabinet, will come with the Texas Sons of Veterans and will be shown special honors. Mrs. Stonewall Jackson will be here with Judge and Mrs. George L. Christian of Richmond.

The heralds from all the states who will ride in the decorated coach at the head of the parade bearing the banners of their divisions have all accepted except the Indian Territory herald, who will soon be appointed. They are: Virginia, Miss Eunice Michle, Charlottesville; Maryland, Miss Willie Henry, New Orleans; North Carolina, Miss Julia Alexander, Charlotte; South Carolina, Miss M. Earl Watrous, Columbia; Tennessee, Miss Elize Vance, Memphis; Georgia, Miss Frances Midrum, Savannah; Alabama, Miss Willie Browning Harolson, Montgomery; Mississippi, Miss Ethel Sara Silver, Jackson; Missouri, Miss Elliott Todhunter, Lexington; Florida, Miss Elizabeth Legere Fleming, Jacksonville; Texas, Miss Estelle Cartwright, Terrell; Arkansas, Miss Bessie Rogers, Fort Smith; Kentucky, Miss Madeline Bridgeford, Louisville; Louisiana, Miss Bessie Uta, Shreveport.

IN SEVENTY DAYS.

THIS MAN EXPECTS TO REACH THE NORTH POLE.

New York, May 14—Anthony Fiala, head of the second Zeigler polar expedition, has sailed for Southampton by the North German Lloyd steamship Kron Prinz Wilhelm. He will spend several days in London making arrangements for the sailing of the expedition from Trondhjem, Norway, in the America. Mr. Fiala said that with the strictest economy of weight and room, using only condensed foods, he expected to reach the pole from his base in Prince Rudolf Land in seventy days. The distance is 602 miles. To get back to his base he will have to travel seventy more days. He says he will depend in large measure on the quality of his men, who, he declares, are the best ever enlisted in an effort to find the pole. He will have many dogs and only thirty-five men.

The expedition will use the food cached by Baldwin on his unlucky attempt to get "farthest north." There will be no "dash" for the pole. It will be a slow, persistent journey. The scientific part of the expedition will sail from New York for Norway by the Scandinavian-American liner Hellig Olav on May 27. Francis Leng, an assistant to Local Forecaster Emery of the weather bureau, will be the meteorologist for Mr. Zeigler's party. Mr. Long was with the Greely expedition and was the only man able to

CURES WHEN DOCTORS FAIL.

Mrs. Frank Chiasson, Patterson, La., writes June 8, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at Du Bois, Kolb & Co.'s.

ANOTHER METHUSELAH GONE.

Upper Sandusky, O., May 14—Peter Stanley died here, aged 110 years, after an illness of seven weeks' duration. He is survived by a widow of 106 years, to whom he had been married eighty-five years. He was the oldest man in Ohio.

SPRING AILMENTS.

There is an aching and tired feeling; the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything, and a feeling that the whole body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is that during winter there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure to the secretions a right exit, and by its tonic effect fully restore the wasted tissues and give strength in place of weakness. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Madisonville, May 14—Prof. S. E. Duncan, principal of Atkinson college, says it is the intention of the board to rebuild the college, which was burned some time since.

PENNSYLVANIA'S LIBEL LAW.

The governor of Pennsylvania has signed the libel law which created such consternation in the ranks of the newspapers of that state recently, and in his reasons for so doing he tells some unpleasant truths which should be well considered by many of the larger newspapers of the country dubbed "yellow journals," and which profess among other things to cater to the classes by abusing the masses, a policy that apparently results in no good to anyone. A great many of the metropolitan papers seem to overlook the fact that often an attack on a man, although political, has a most damaging effect on his private character, the peace and happiness of his family and friends as well as his own tranquility, and such a policy, carried to extremes for years by many of the papers in the east, has resulted in a law that will subject most any of the papers of Pennsylvania to heavy damage suits most every day in the year if they are not careful. The main point is, however, that the newspapers of other states can find a valuable moral in the action of the Pennsylvania legislature. The same kind of journalistic indifference in other states will eventually result in similar laws. Every effort should be made to throttle reckless and malicious journalism and supplant it with that of a higher class.

Governor Pennypacker says that the freedom of the press "does not mean that citizens have no right to protect their reputation and homes from the injuries that result from careless or negligent, as well as malicious, false reports." He also says:

"A mayor of our chief city has been called a traitor; a senator of the United States has been denounced as a 'yokel,' with sudden brain, and within the last quarter of a century two presidents of the United States have been murdered, and in each instance the cause was easily traced to the inflammatory and careless newspaper utterances. A cartoon in a daily journal of May 2 defines the question with entire precision. An ugly little dwarf, representing the governor of the commonwealth, stands on a crude stool. The stool is subordinate to and placed alongside a huge printing press, with wheels as large as those of an ox team, and all are so arranged as to give the idea that when the press starts the stool and its occupant will be thrown to the ground. Put into words, the cartoon asserts to the world that the press is above the law and of greater strength than the government. No such self-respecting people will permit such an attitude to be long maintained. In England, a century ago, the offender would have been drawn and quartered and his head stuck upon the pole at the gates. In America today this is the kind of arrogance which goeth before a fall."

The governor concludes his statement as follows:

"With a serious sense that the evil is of more than ordinary moment, with full knowledge of the importance of the press and of its value to mankind through all past struggles, and with the hope and belief that the greater care and larger measures of responsibility brought about by this law, tending to elevate the meritorious and repress the unworthy, will promote its welfare while benefiting the community. I approve the bill."

The situation is becoming serious in the labor field in this country. Thousands of men are striking for higher wages and a reduction of working hours, and in many of the larger cities the employers of labor are organizing to fight union labor, a fact that is very menacing, because they have millions of capital behind them. In some cases the claims of the workmen are just, but in others they are probably not, and are apparently only one form of blackmail. It is only the unjust, unreasonable demands that have aroused the manufacturers and employers to a fighting attitude, and in New York alone, a five hundred-million dollar association has been formed to force out of employment union men, and if successful, will deprive of work 175,000 men. Now seems to be a time for reasonable, temperate and unprejudiced action, or incalculable harm may be done. There are two sides to every question, and both sides should be studied by those concerned before they act.

Two guileless young men of New Jersey have learned a lesson. They went daft over a fascinating young lady, and to decide which to marry she demanded that they fight a duel with clubs. She and a young man were the only spectators. After the rivals had beaten each other up so they couldn't even ask to be taken to some convenient hospital, she left and married the young man who had been an enthusiastic witness of the duel. When the young men fully recover they will probably realize that no matter how foolish a girl may be to exact such a proof of loyalty, she is sensible compared with young men who allow themselves to become such monkeys.

The Democratic state executive committee seems to be intent on weeding out some of the county committees and putting on them only men who are faithful to the cause represented by the committee. This is no worse than might be expected. It is politics. If men in authority find that they are opposed and harassed by men they can remove and thus get out of the way they are very foolish not to remove them. In Lexington all the anti-Beckham men have been deposed. It is supposed McCracken will come in turn. There is plenty of good material here for Chairman Young and the committee to work on.

A number of the small calibre papers in the First district are engaged in an argument over which published the correct election returns first. According to the candidates the correct returns have not yet been published by any of them, and will probably never be, as there are no correct returns in this primary.

All you have to do to enlist the sympathy of the enterprising members of the municipal boards of Paducah is to claim you are poor, and they'll do most anything for you, no matter how it makes the city look. A number of them, you know, are running for office, and candidates are unusually affable just now.

Friends of Senator Gorman of Maryland insist that he would not be president of the United States under any circumstances, a conclusion in which the people heartily concur. The senator should never feel alarmed over his prospects of being president.

TO HARDEN STEEL.

NEW PROCESS ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN DEMONSTRATED.

London, May 14.—British metal experts are deeply interested in a new process of hardening and annealing steel, known as the "Holzer-Frith Process." W. H. L. Frith, a member of a well known London firm, has gone to the United States, armed with the results of government tests, to bring the invention before the notice of steel magnates in the east and west. He declares that the present process of hardening steel by plunging and subsequent annealing will be abolished and all steel now in use, including armor plate, will shortly be obsolete.

By the new process hardening and annealing are accomplished simultaneously in a bath of quicksilver, confined in a hermetically sealed vessel. The rapid expansion of the quicksilver under the influence of heat is said to create even pressure all round and to prevent that distortion of the molecules which causes those flaws in steel as now hardened, which often lead to the disasters where the product is subjected to severe tests.

Mrs. Rufus P. Williams has started in Cambridge, Mass., a movement to furnish the consumptive poor with free diet—fresh milk, fresh eggs and soup—with free nursing and with free courses of instruction in healthful living and in pulmonary gymnastics.

LOUISVILLE BOY LICKED.

MARVIN HART DEFEATED BY GEORGE GARDINER.

Auditorium, Louisville, May 14.—George Gardiner was given the decision over Marvin Hart at the end of the twelfth round in their fight before the Southern Athletic club last night. Hart, at the end of the twelfth round, claimed that his right hand had been broken and gave up the fight. The combat was as that of young bulls in springtime. Hart was strong and hit like a mule kicking, but Gardiner was much faster and landed oftener. Both were very weak at the finish. The fight was to have gone twenty rounds at catch weights, with Tim Hurst as referee.

The men stepped into the ring at 10 o'clock, Hart weighing 176 pounds and Gardiner 164.

The end of the tenth round found Gardiner coming strong. A series of right hooks made Hart groggy. It was still anybody's fight in the twelfth, in spite of the fact that Gardiner was the cleverer. He hit Hart as often as he desired, but his blows lacked steam.

Hart was badly battered up about the face, while Gardiner was unmarked.

Bird's Nest in a Hat.

The manager of a coal wharf at Hallscham was in a curious dilemma recently. Arriving at his office one morning he hung his "bowler" on the usual peg. When he came out for lunch he found that a couple of starlings were well on with the construction of a habitation in the hat. He had to choose between being a brute and paying for a new hat. He paid up like a man.—Pearson's Weekly.

GIGANTIC COMBINE.

EMPLOYERS ORGANIZE A BIG CONCERN IN NEW YORK.

New York, May 14.—To smash the unions of the building trades all the employers in that line have been invited to enter one of the most gigantic combinations of employers ever formed. It will be a central body, made up of the various associations. The war will be waged with lock-outs of union men in all the building trades. The Building Trades association is leading the fight on the labor organizations, with which it has dealt so many years. No quarter is to be given, and the workingmen, 175,000 of them, will soon find themselves without employment if the plans go through.

A meeting will be held Friday night by the employers at the Building Trades club to perfect plans. More than $500,000,000 capital will be represented. One hundred thousand workmen are now idle owing to strikes and lock-outs. Operations on all new buildings now going up in New York, about 263, are suspended.

The subway strikers have reconsidered the stand they took a few days ago. They reported for work yesterday morning, leaving their grievances in the hands of arbitrators.

SALT MONOPOLY.

FIRST CONVICTION UNDER THE SHERMAN LAW.

San Francisco, Cal., May 14.—Before Judge De Haven, in the United States district court the federal salt company, of which D. E. Skinner is president, was convicted of maintaining a monopoly, contrary to the Sherman anti-trust law.

When the case was opened counsel for the corporation withdrew its original plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to the first count of the indictment. The maximum fine is $5,000.

This case marks the first conviction under the Sherman law, which went into effect in 1892.

Express Package Burst and Messengers Drank.

Memphis Woman Alleged to Have Sent the Whiskey to Cincinnati Woman.

Cincinnati, O., May 14—One is dead and two are dying, while two more are in a serious condition from drinking poisoned whiskey found in an express package.

J. B. Ficker is dead. He was an employee of the Adams Express company, and while engaged in transferring packages at the depot, assisted by William Daley, Louis Burbank, William Stevens and George Heberle, one of the parcels became unwrapped, and it contained a bottle of what was supposed to contain whiskey. It fell and was cracked, and the men each took a drink. Half an hour later all were in a hospital suffering agonies from arsenic poisoning.

Ficker died soon after being taken to the ward, while it is believed by the doctors that Burbank and Daley will soon follow. The other two men are in no immediate danger, but for a time were unconscious.

The bottle was addressed to Mrs. Katie Nobbe, a woman who works in the Honing hotel, and the doctors say the contents were heavily charged with arsenic. Mrs. Nobbe's husband left her three years ago. She said last night that she believed the package had been sent to her by a woman named Lucy McCormick, who lives with a saloonkeeper in Memphis named Edwin Pell and whose place is at 6 Hampton Place. Mrs. Nobbe said that several days ago she received a package which she believes was sent by the McCormick woman, containing a bottle of poison and an obscene message. She feels certain that the whiskey caused the death of the expressmen today came from the same person who sent the other package. She alleges that the McCormick woman is jealous of her and that there has been coolness between them recently although some time ago they were good friends and corresponded regularly.

A LAST RESORT.

PURE FOOD SHOULD BE THE FIRST.

When the human machine goes wrong it's ten to one that the trouble began with the stomach and can therefore be removed by the use of proper food. A lady well known in Bristol, Ontario county, N. Y., tells of the experience she had curing her only child by the use of scientific food: "My little daughter, the only child and for that reason doubly dear, inherited nervous dyspepsia. We tried all kinds of remedies and soft foods. At last, when patience was about exhausted and the child's condition had grown so bad the whole family was aroused, we tried Grape Nuts.

"A friend recommended the food as one which her own delicate children had grown strong upon so I purchased a box—as a last resort. In a very short time a marked change in both health and disposition was seen. What made our case easy was that she liked it at once and its crisp flavor has made it an immediate favorite with the most fastidious in our family.

"It's use seems to be thoroughly established in western New York where many friends use it regularly. I have noticed its fine effects upon the intellects as well as the bodies of those who use it. We owe it much." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

STUDENTS LEAVE

THEY WANTED THE COLLEGE FRATERNITIES ABOLISHED.

Liberty, Mo., May 14—About forty students left William Jewell college and probably twenty or twenty-five more others will leave as the result of anti-fraternity movement, which started last week.

A petition signed by 100 students, mostly ministerial, was presented to the faculty, demanding the dissolution of the four fraternities here, and threatening to leave the school if the petition was not favorably acted upon. The faculty was indignant because of the threat made, and refused to consider the demand.

The petition was afterward changed requesting that the matter be referred to the board of trustees with the indorsement of the faculty. This was also refused, and at a meeting of the students concerned last night they decided to walk out today.

The principal cause of this split up was the recent suspension of six fraternity boys for an escapade with girls from the other college. The ministerial students claim that since this college is generally known as a school for preachers, they incur the blame for improper conduct of other students of the college.

FOUGHT WITH CLUBS

BOTH DUELLISTS BADLY HURT IN THE MIXUP.

Morristown, N. J., May 14—As a result of a duel fought at Wharton, over Rosa Latzky, an 18 year old Hungarian girl, who told her suitors that they would have to fight for her, Henry Walde is in the hospital in a badly damaged condition.

Rosa helped to arrange the duel, which was to take place with clubs in the presence of no witnesses save Rosa and a young man whom she asked to accompany her to the place. She watched her admirers cudgel each other with their clubs until neither could stand, and then she departed with her friend, and they were married by a justice of the peace.

The duellists were found later by mine employees, both unconscious, and Walde so badly bruised that he was brought to the hospital.

HAD TO SHOOT HIM.

Paris, Tenn., May 14—News has just reached here of a serious difficulty which occurred in the Eleventh district of this county between Jim Dumas and Bud Freeman, a negro. Dumas accused the negro of riding his stock at night without permission and he attacked him. Dumas claims that to protect himself he was forced to shoot Freeman. It is thought the shots, three in number, will result in death.

Every woman loves to think of the time when a soft little body, all her own, will nestle in her bosom, fully satisfying the yearning which lies in the heart of every good woman. But yet there is a black cloud hovering about the pretty picture in her mind which fills her with terror. The dread of childbirth takes away much of the joy of motherhood. And yet it need not be so. For sometime there has been upon the market, well-known and recommended by physicians, a liniment called which makes childbirth as simple and easy as nature intended it. It is a strengthening, penetrating liniment, which the skin readily absorbs. It gives the muscles elasticity and vigor, prevents sore breasts, morning sickness and the loss of the girlish figure. An intelligent mother in Butler, Pa., says: "I used to dread Mother's Friend again, I would obtain 9 bottles if I had to pay $5 per bottle for it."

CROP REPORT.

THE WEATHER HAS NOT BEEN VERY FAVORABLE.

The last weekly crop report is: "The week opened with dry, cold weather. Frost occurred in many localities on the 4th. It soon turned warmer and averaged about normal, although the nights were rather cool all the week. No rainfall of any importance occurred. Farm work progressed rapidly, but there was some complaint of the ground being too hard and dry to work well."

"The cool nights and dry weather were not favorable to the growth of vegetation and crops did not make much advancement."

"In the south central and western portions of the state wheat is not doing well; it has turned yellow, and in some localities is heading low. In the north central and eastern sections it is more promising."

"Rye is doing well. Oats are not promising. Corn planting progressed satisfactorily, but the early planted fields are not coming up well; some have been replanted."

"Tobacco plants are plentiful and in fairly good condition. They will be large enough to transplant by the time the ground can be prepared."

"Irish potatoes are late, but are in good condition. Gardens are late and are advancing very slowly. Hemp is about all sown. Grass has made slow growth and is beginning to show need of rain."

"Strawberries are beginning to ripen and will give a fair yield. Blackberries promise a good crop. Apples are in good condition, but peaches are almost a failure."

REHEARSALS.

ESSAYS AND ORATIONS TO BE HANDED IN TOMORROW.

The chorus rehearsals at the High school are now being conducted and tomorrow the essays and orations will be handed in for examination. The 15th was the day set for the completion of all numbers on the program and it is thought all pupils will be prepared. This will be done in order to have the graduating exercises fully up to the standard. The pupils heretofore had not been preparing early and as a consequence the rehearsals were carried through in a hurry and some little hitch generally occurred.

A CONFLICT OF IDEAS.

How Two Western Girls Proposed to be Chaperoned.

The two Western girls were on a visit to the East and they were enjoying themselves immensely. But somehow there seemed to be a conflict of ideas between them and their hostess. She had strict ideas of propriety and they apparently only thought they had. They had determined to show that they were fully up-to-date in social matters, but—well, here's what happened:

Two western young men happened to be in New York at the same time, and they invited the girls to go to the theater, with a little supper to follow. The girls promptly accepted.

The hostess, in whose charge they were, raised her hands in horror when she heard of it.

"It will never do," she said. "You must be chaperoned on any such occasion as that."

"Chaperoned!" exclaimed one of the girls. "Why, of course we will be chaperoned. You don't suppose we'd neglect such an important feature as that, do you? We're not entirely ignorant of social usages."

"Then it's all arranged?"

"Of course it's all arranged."

"I'm glad of that," said the hostess with relief, "but it would have been just as well to consult me. Who is to chaperon you?"

"Why, Ethel will chaperon me, and I will chaperon her," was the ingenious reply.

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

Rewritten and Rendered into Modern English from Sir Edwin Cassoden's Memoir
 By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]
 Copyright, 1888 and 1901, by the Bosten-Merrill Company

It never occurred to Mary that Brandon might suffer death for attempting to run away with her. She knew only too well that she alone was to blame, not only for that but for all that had taken place between them, and never for one moment thought that he might be punished for her fault, even admitting there was fault in any one, which she was by no means ready to do.

The trouble in her mind growing out of a lack of news from Brandon was of a general nature, and the possibility of his death had no place in her thoughts. Nevertheless for the second time Brandon had been condemned to die for her sake. The king's seal had stamped the warrant for the execution and the headman had sharpened his ax and could almost count the golden fee for his butchery.

Mary found the king playing cards with De Longueville. There was a roomful of courtiers, and as she entered she was the target for every eye, but she was on familiar ground now and did not care for the glances nor the observers, most of whom she despised. She was the princess again and full of self confidence, so she went straight to the object of her visit, the king. She had not made up her mind just what to say first, there was so much, but Henry saved her the trouble. He, of course, was in a great rage and denounced Mary's conduct as un-natural and treasonable, the latter, in Henry's mind, being a crime many times greater than the breaking of all the commandments put together in one fell, composite act. All this the king had communicated to Mary by the lips of Wolsey the evening before, and Mary had received it with a silent scorn that would have withered any one but the worthy bishop of York. As I said, when Mary approached her brother he saved her the trouble of deciding where to begin by speaking first himself, and his words were of a part with his nature, violent, cruel and vulgar. He abused her and called her all the vile names in his ample vocabulary of billingsgate. The queen was present and aided and abetted with a word now and then, until Henry, with her help, at last succeeded in working himself into a towering passion and wound up by calling Mary a vile wanton in plainer terms than I like to write. This aroused all the antagonism in the girl, and there was plenty of it. She feared Henry no more than she feared me. Her eyes flashed a fire that made even the king draw back as she exclaimed: "You give me that name and expect me to remember you are my brother? There are words that make a mother hate her firstborn, and that is one. Tell me what I have done to deserve it? I expected to hear of ingratitude and disobedience and all that, but supposed you had at least some traces of brotherly feeling—for ties of blood are hard to break—even if you have of late lost all semblance to man or king."

This was hitting Henry hard, for it was beginning to be the talk in every mouth that he was leaving all the affairs of state to Wolsey and spending his time in puerile amusement. "The toward hope which at all poyntes appeared in the young Kyng" was beginning to look, after all, like nothing more than the old time royal cold fire, made to consume but not to warm the nation.

Henry looked at Mary with the stare of a baffled bull.
 "If running off in male attire and stopping at inns and boarding ships with a common captain of the guard doesn't justify my accusation and stamp you what you are, I do not know what would."

Even Henry saw her innocence in her genuine surprise. She was silent for a little time, and I, standing close to her, could plainly see that this phase of the question had never before presented itself.

She hung her head for a moment and then spoke: "It may be true, as you say, that what I have done will lose me my fair name—I had never thought of it in that light—but it is also true that I am innocent and have done no wrong. You may not believe me, but you can ask Master Brandon—here the king gave a great laugh, and of course the courtiers joined in.

"It is all very well for you to laugh, but Master Brandon would not tell you a lie for your crown." Gods! I could have fallen on my knees to a faith like that. "What I tell you is true. I trusted him so completely that the fear of dishonor at his hands never suggested itself to me. I knew he would care for and respect me. I trusted him, and my trust was not misplaced. Of how many of these creatures who laugh when the king laughs could I say as much?" And Henry knew she spoke the truth, both concerning herself and the courtiers.

With downcast eyes she continued: "I suppose, after all, you are partly right in regard to me, for it was his honor that saved me, not my own, and if I am not what you called me I have Master Brandon to thank—not myself."

"We will thank him publicly on Tower hill day after tomorrow at noon," said the king, with his accustomed delicacy, breaking the news of Brandon's sentence as abruptly as possible.

With a look of terror in her eyes Mary screamed: "What! Charles Brandon—Tower hill?—You are going to kill him?"

"I think we will," responded Henry. "It usually has that effect, to separate the head from the body and quarter the remains to decorate the four gates. We will take you up to London in a day or two and let you see his beautiful head on the bridge."

"Behold—quarter—bridge! Lord Jesu!" She could not grasp the thought. She tried to speak, but the words would not come. In a moment she became more coherent, and the words rolled from her lips as a mighty flood tide pours back through the arches of London bridge.

"You shall not kill him. He is blameless. You do not know. Drive these gawking fools out of the room, and I will tell you all." The king ordered the room cleared of everybody but Wolsey, Jane and myself, who remained at Mary's request. When all were gone, the princess continued: "Brother, this man is in no way to blame. It is all my fault—my fault that he loves me, my fault that he tried to run away to New Spain with me. It may be that I have done wrong and that my conduct has been unmaidenly, but I could not help it. From the first time I ever saw him in the lists with you at Windsor there was a gnawing hunger in my heart beyond my control. I supposed of course that day he would contrive some way to be presented to me."

"You did?"
 "Yes, but he made no effort at all, and when we met he treated me as if I were an ordinary girl."
 "He did?"
 "Yes."
 "Horrible."

Mary was too intent on her story to heed the sarcasm, and continued: "That made me all the more interested in him, since it showed that he was different from the wretches who beset you and me with their flattery, and I soon began to seek him on every occasion. This is an unmaidenly history I am giving, I know, but it is the truth, and must be told. I was satisfied at first if I could only be in the same room with him and see his face and hear his voice. The very air he breathed was like an elixir for me. I made every excuse to have him near me. I asked him to my parlor—you know about that—and I did all I could to be with him. At first he was gentle and kind, but soon, I think, he saw the dawning danger in both our hearts, as I, too, saw it, and he avoided me in every way he could, knowing the trouble it held for us both. Oh, he was the wiser! And to think to what I have brought him. Brother, let me die for him—I who alone am to blame. Take my life and spare him—spare him! He was the wiser, but I doubt if all the wisdom in the world could have saved us. He almost insulted me once in the park—told me to leave—when it hurt him more than me, I am now sure, but he did it to keep matters from growing worse between us. I tried to remember the affront, but could not, and had he struck me I believe I should have gone back to him sooner or later. Oh, it was all my fault! I would not let him save himself. So strong was my feeling that I could bear his silence no longer, and one day I went to him in your bed-chamber anteroom and fairly thrust myself and my love upon him. Then, after he was liberated from Newgate, I could not induce him to come to me, so I went to him and begged for his love. Then I coaxed him into taking me to New Spain and would listen to no excuse and bear no reason. Now lives there another man who would have taken so much coaxing?"

"No, by heaven, your majesty!" said Wolsey, who really had a kindly feeling for Brandon and would gladly save his life if by so doing he would not interfere with any of his own plans and interests. Wolsey's heart was naturally kind when it cost him nothing, and much has been related of him which, to say the least, tells a great deal more than the truth. Ingratitude always recoils upon the ingrate, and Henry's loss was greater than Wolsey's when Wolsey fell.

Henry really liked or, rather, admired Brandon, as had often been shown, but his nature was incapable of real affection. The highest point he ever reached was admiration, often quite extravagant for a time, but usually short lived, as naked admiration is apt to be. If he had affection for any one, it was for Mary. He could not but see the justice of his sister's position, but he had no intention of allowing justice in the sense of right to interfere with justice in the sense of the king's will.

One for the Pickpocket.
 When Mrs. Isabella Bishop, the well-known traveler, was in the United States she had at least one funny experience. She was riding in a car in Chicago and felt her pocket being picked, but said nothing at the moment. Presently along came the conductor to collect his fares. When he reached Mrs. Bishop she quietly remarked: "This gentleman," turning to the thief, "will pay. He has my purse."

"Lightness of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—no small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

CAPT. HOWARD TALKS

Is Willing to Make an Increase to Workmen.

But He Cannot Do It On Work Now
Contracted For.

Some of their men seem to have taken a mean advantage of the Howards. They have practically closed the big ships yards at Jeffersonville, which are crowded with government work, because the owners will not make an immediate increase in wages. Captain Howard is quoted as saying he is willing to pay the increase demanded as soon as present contracts are fulfilled, but he cannot do it now except at a heavy loss.

A Louisville paper says: "Captain Howard said last night that he had no statement to make further than that he could not recognize the demands at this time. The work he has on hand was taken on estimates based on the price he was paying for labor when the bids were filed and to grant an increase meant a loss on every contract now on his books. After the present work is completed Captain Howard said he would be willing to grant the men an increase and bids put in for future delivery would be based on the wage schedule that the employees of the yard are asking. So far as hours are concerned Captain Howard said that was a matter of no importance to him. There are a number of government contracts now on hand and Captain Howard is under the impression the men look upon this fact as being encouraging to their chances, as the United States exacts a forfeit on work not completed on time. Unless there is a compromise or an acceptance of the demands it is likely the yard will have to close down in the next few days, as the present force can make but little headway in boat building."

There has yet been no strike at Mound City, but one is probable. It appears the only objection raised anywhere to the demands of the workmen is to making an increase until all the work now on hand, which was taken on estimates based on what was then paid the workmen, is completed.

Attorney Taylor Says He Just
Must See Inside the Boxes

There May be Some Trouble in Mr.
Lovett Getting His Certificate.

Attorney L. K. Taylor stated this morning that he was convinced that there had been some crookedness in the counting of the ballots for commonwealth attorney in Marshall county since had tried all fair means possible to secure a legal count.

He stated this morning that if he secured a mandamus to compel a count, that ten days' notice had to be given and in this time the Marshall county precinct officers could do what they pleased with the boxes and ballots, and that he would resort to other methods to secure the count. Chairman Morrison has notified Mr. Lovett that he will issue no certificate unless a count is made.

Mr. Edwards, chairman of the Marshall county committee, is said to have been offered a private seal for the boxes, to insure against tampering, but would agree to nothing of the kind. Mr. Taylor stated: "I have been informed by two men in one precinct who voted for me that only one vote was put down for the two, this they learned by a personal investigation. Now when such reports come to me I am prone to believe some crookedness exists, and will have to investigate. One man who worked against me tried to secure a copy of the ballots used and I am told this was secured to print from and substitute where needed. This is a matter which must be investigated, and if I were in Lovett's place and such a question had been raised over the ballots, I would certainly compel Edwards to show up and dispel the doubt."

Mr. Taylor said this morning that he would take the proper legal steps to gain access to the ballot boxes and this he will do immediately.

GETS GOOD MAJORITY.

MR. FERGUSON SAYS THERE IS NO DOUBT OF HIS NOMINATION.

Hon. Mc D. Ferguson of Paducah, one of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for railroad commissioner in this district, arrived in the city last evening and this morning stated to a reporter that he had certainly won. He said that at first he wanted to give his opponent the benefit of every doubt, and allowed himself only the smallest vote where returns were in doubt, but that with several counties that went for him given to his opponent he is still 4,049 votes in the lead, and is confident that his majority will reach 4,500, if not more.

Mr. Dempsey, his opponent, is quoted in yesterday's Louisville Times by the Madisonville correspondent as having said that he was making no claims, as he had not attempted to collect election returns.

Hon. Jake Corbett, of Wickliffe, was here today on business.
